

No. 1 Pick Hall Signs with Edmonton Oilers

Written by Matthew Coller
Monday, 05 July 2010 19:07

The Associated Press reported that the Edmonton Oilers have signed top pick Taylor Hall to a three-year, entry level contract. The deal includes the maximum $900,000 per season, which could net him around $3 million if he reaches performance bonuses. The 18-year old was selected No. 1 overall in this year's draft and will attend the Oilers development camp beginning tomorrow.

OTHER NEWS FROM THE BUSINESS OF SPORTS

NETWORK

(THE BIZ OF BASEBALL)

- Brown: MLB All-Star Voting Process Fails On Multiple Levels
 - 2010 ALL-STAR GAME SELECTIONS ANNOUNCED
 - Stephen Strasburg Still a Hot Ticket Sale on Resale Market
 - 2010 MLB All-Stars to be Announced Today on TBS
-

Matthew Coller is a staff member of the Business of Sports Network, and is a freelance writer. He can be followed on Twitter

Follow The Biz of Hockey on Twitter

No. 1 Pick Hall Signs with Edmonton Oilers

Written by Matthew Collier
Monday, 05 July 2010 19:07

Follow the Business of Sports Network on Facebook